

tion to Country Merchants.—Since the invention of my Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps in the United States, several unscrupulous liquor mixers have been putting up their poisonous gin in bottles and calling it Schnapps. That name belongs exclusively to my medicinal beverage, however.

The genuine can be had at all the respectable drug-

DUDOLPH WOLFE, manufacturer and importer, 18, 20 and 22 Beaver street, no advocates for drinking at the bars of taverns, and who are well known by the recommendation of Mr. Wolfe to buy his article in bottles, will guard against the possibility of deception. We see claims the word "Schnapps" as his distinctive mark. It was certainly first applied in this country to his article, and he has therefore entitled it to exclusive use.—S. C. Linnell, Oct. 1.

Dr. J. H. SCHIEDAM.—There is justice in the complaints made by Mr. Wolfe, who uses his trade mark of "Schnapps" to cover for their own articles. He is the first to notice the name, and has a pre-emptive right to it. Be no friends to barroom mixers, who continually use the term to purchased "Schnapps."—H. H. Powers, Oct. 1.

Great Violin Improvement.—Violin Taught with the recently invented keyed finger board. The stepping and tuning of the violin are so simple and uniformly correct, as to render the violin the most easily learned instrument in the world. The violin seems, from the foregoing letter, that the Schnapps first used as a trade mark in this country by Mr. Wolfe. This being the case, he has in equity to its exclusive right.—Deputized, Oct. 1.

W. ROBERTSON, inventor and teacher of the keyed violin, is called to the following from physicians:

"Dr. Calkins, town physician and surgeon at Lyme, N.Y., in a letter dated Oct. 14, 1852.—'Enclosed is a copy of Dr. Powers' paper on the latest illusions of this popular consumer, and promises to send in its popularity even his former choicer productions. "Sparkling Polka," by the same composer, is having an immense sale; seventh edition is now hot. The polka is also arranged for four hands and for orchestra. Price 4c. HORACE WATERS, Publisher, 333 Broadway.

50 Wigs and Toupees.—The celebrated manufacturer for wigs, toupees, braids of long hair, front braids, &c.—27 Maiden Lane, corner of Nassau street. Caution.— Beware of Broadway prices.

MURDERT & HEARD, 27 Maiden Lane.

Toothache Cured in Five Minutes.—By Dr. THOMAS'S wonderful Venetian Liniment, or no pain; headache in half an hour. Sold by all druggists and storekeepers. Depot, 40 Cortlandt street.

Married. On Tuesday, February 27, by the Rev. J. Thompson, Wm. J. Pratt to Miss Jane Patterson, both of this city.

On Tuesday, 27, BERNARD J. CLARKE to Miss ANN KERKIGAN, both of New York.

On Wednesday, 28, JAMES C. FISHER to Mrs. MARY E. S. FORBES, Toledo, Ohio, Aug. 13, 1853.

No frequent notices of the Schiedam Schnapps, both the profession and the press, had induced the desire to test the efficacy of this preparation of gin before I invested in it. I will fulfil the expectations of the most sanguine, and prove both a blessing to a profit to suffering humanity.

Dr. Charles A. Lee, Commissioner of Health, Albany, N.Y., in a letter dated Jan. 1, 1852.—"Enclosed is a copy of Dr. Powers' article, remarks such an article is wanting for medicinal purposes. The profession are deeply rested in this matter."
